

Do You Know Your Directions?

There are four main directions to know as we learn our way around the world in which we live. These directions are north, south, east, and west. If we know these directions, it will be easier for us to tell where we are and where we would like to go.

Here are what the directions look like on a piece of paper.

